Making Sure That We Honor God with All of Us

Body Parts

- Our Ears
- Our Eyes
- Our Tongues (part 5)
- Our Hands
- Our Feet
- Our Hearts

Our Tongues

- How important are our tongues—i.e.; the words that our lips and mouths form?
  - What did Jesus' little brother, James, say?
    - How would you summarize to someone what we talked about last time?
(from James 1:19-20... or James 1:26... or James 2:12-13... or James 3:1-12...)
    - How did what James taught us parallel what Jesus taught us... or Paul... or Peter...?

Our Tongues

- How important are our tongues—i.e.; the words that our lips and mouths form?
  - What did Jesus' little brother, James, say?
  - So let's end on some positive applications
    - What kinds of words should we be sharing, and why?
      - Please read Proverbs 16:23-24
        - What can—and should—our words be like?
        - Words can instruct (like we're doing here), but how can our words be “sweet to the soul and healing to the bones” for those around us?
          - What would that look like, in our own households? Let's use concrete examples
